Media Release: Xavier University will be documenting the Mardi Gras Indian Arts Summer School in order to report back to funders of the project and to promote the work of its Community Arts Program and Department of Art. I hereby grant Xavier permission to record my child's likeness and/or voice for use on its website and by television, film, radio, printed media, etc.. I hereby release Xavier from any and all claims in its usage.

Signature(s) of Parent/Guardian

Payment (Checks are payable to Xavier University):
Enrollment Fee: $50 Due with application by May 31

Note for Scholarship Recipients: Parents or guardians are responsible for an application fee of $10.
Important: Enrollment is limited to 20 students.
Submitting an application does not guarantee acceptance into the program. Xavier reserves the right to cancel or alter the program should circumstances warrant. Preference will be given to students who have, in previous summers, demonstrated a high level of interest in learning about Mardi Gras Indian art and culture. Students will spend up to 80% of their time developing hand-sewing skills. Please consider your child's needs and interests before enrolling her/him in the program.
