

Integral Human Development (IHD) Workshops

Thursday, 12th January 2017

12:00pm and 03:00pm

CAT+FD Mellon Seminar Room; Library 5th Floor

Dr. Kim Lamberty,
CRS Director for University and Mission Engagement, will be on the Xavier University campus to conduct workshops on Integral Human Development (IHD).

IHD considers ways for achieving social and environmental sustainability, means of bridging gaps between emergencies and development, understanding the linkages between poverty and unjust policies, systems, and practices, and promoting personal wellbeing within that of the common good.

It is a holistic approach reflecting on cultural, economic, political, social and spiritual needs.

The workshop will provide an in-depth explanation of IHD including how it is utilized for addressing issues of human rights and social justice, and introduce participants to the CRS Faculty Learning Commons, an online series of modules consisting of curated scholarly articles appropriate for use in undergraduate instruction.

For more information or to reserve a space, please contact Dr. Robin G. Vander (rvander@xula.edu).
Lunch provided during the noon session, light refreshments in the afternoon.
