PERFORMANCE STUDIES LAB
XAVIER UNIVERSITY OF LOUISIANA

The Performance Studies Laboratory is an interdisciplinary working group of Xavier faculty with backgrounds in Performance Studies who work with students to produce performance in contexts such as literature, cultural ritual, and everyday life, among many others.

2015-2016 PERFORMANCE SEASON

"Hang It Out To Dry"
Featuring LSU’s Danielle Sears Vignes, this solo performance tells the unique stories and spun tales about the washed out community of Chalmette, Louisiana in the wake of Hurricane Katrina.
September 4, 2015 @ 7:30 pm

"Xavier Student Showcase"
Featuring multiple student performers from Performance Studies Laboratory courses.
December 3, 2015 @ 7:30 pm

"Confessions of an exSuperwoman: a premiere teaser"
Featuring XU faculty member, Dr. Kimberly J. Chandler, who will premier scenes from her upcoming one-woman show focusing on an often never seen look into what it’s really like to live as a Black woman in America.
March 17, 2016 @ 7:30 pm

All shows are performed in the Nissan Room, 5th Floor, Library Resource Center.
For tickets or additional information, call 504.520.5091