

COP Pre-Pharmacy Requirements

Students wishing to pursue a Doctor of Pharmacy (Pharm.D) degree through Xavier's College of Pharmacy must complete 57 credit hours of pre-requisite courses (see table below) prior to being admitted to the Pharm.D. program.

The pre-pharmacy requirements may be completed at Xavier University or any accredited university. All of the pre-requisite course work must be completed on or before June 30, 2021. Any student who has more than seven hours of course work to complete at the end of the Spring 2021 semester will no longer be considered for admissions to the College.

General ethics courses will not be considered in fulfillment of the health ethics requirement at Xavier University of Louisiana. Transfer credit for PHIL 2400 Health Ethics must be a comparable course in either bioethics, medical ethics or health ethics. The required health ethics course must be offered through a philosophy department.

The required Theology course must have been offered through a Theology or Religion department. Courses offered through other departments such as History, English, Philosophy, or Humanities will not be accepted. However, the College of Pharmacy will accept a Theology course from another institution if it is equivalent to a Theology course taught at Xavier University. The course will have to be approved by Xavier's Theology Department before it is accepted. Biology, Chemistry, and Physics courses for non-science majors will not be accepted by the College of Pharmacy.

The College of Pharmacy will not accept any independent study courses.
