2022 – 2023 PROFESSIONAL JUDGMENT (PJ) FORM

If your financial situation has changed and you feel the income information on your FAFSA no longer accurately reflects your family’s current income, you may consider submitting documents to be reviewed for a professional judgment.

Priority deadline date to submit is June 1, 2022 to ensure you receive a response prior to fee payment date. Final deadline date to submit a PJ request is September 30. (Please send all documents to your financial aid counselor).

- If you are selected for verification, it must be completed.
- Along with this PJ form, you should include all of the valid required documents at the time of submission.
Note: The Financial Aid Office reserves the right to request additional documentation.
- After evaluating and processing your documents, the results may not change your federal financial aid offer.
