Xavier University of Louisiana's Center for Equity, Justice and the Human Spirit to Host Social Justice Webinars

WHO/WHAT: Xavier University of Louisiana's Center for Equity, Justice and the Human Spirit will host two social justice webinars. The first webinar, The Truth Exposed: Environmental Justice & COVID-19, is taking place on Wednesday, June 17 at 5 p.m. (CST). The second webinar, The Joy and The Wound: Witnessing America, Race, and Righteous Rage, is taking place on Friday, June 19 at 11:30 a.m. (CST). The two virtual panel discussions seek to analyze the current events in the United States with respect to how environmental racism is killing people of color as well as the overall legal, historical, and socio-political issues surrounding race relations that remain ever present. The two events which also seek to meaningfully consider ways that society can move toward collective transformation will feature notable panelists including the Executive Director for the ACLU of Louisiana Alanah Odoms, and Lieutenant General Russel Honoré among several others.

WHEN:

Wednesday, June 17 at 5 p.m. (CST) Friday, June 19 at 11:30 a.m. (CST)
